RUHLIN WOULD FIGHT JEFFRIES

Feels That He Can Put Champion Out of the Business.

IGNORES GENTLEMAN JACK

Burns Never Anything Better Than 'Third-Rater,' He Declares.

(Special to The Times-Dispatch.)

NEW YORK, April 1.—Gus Ruhlman, who has challenged Bob Fitzsimmons to a return fight, is after the heavy-weight championship of the world. He announced today that if successful in his battle with the Corbin, he will meet him in another bout. Ruhlman believes that by defeating Fitzsimmons he will force Jeffries to come out of his retirement. He said that the boxer-maker is averse to crossing arms with men of the Burns and O'Brien caliber because he does not consider them first-class scrappers. He knows that Jeffries has great respect for the prowess of any pugilist who is able to conquer Fitzsimmons. This, he says, does not apply to O'Brien, because, in the opinion of the Akron Giant, Fitzsimmons was not at his best when he met the Philadelphia.

"I never was in better condition in my life," said Ruhlman today, "and I feel that I can outfight Jeffries in any kind of a battle. I do not care to give serious consideration to such men as O'Brien and Burns. O'Brien lays his claim to the heavyweight championship on his questionable defeat over Fitzsimmons. At that time family troubles were worrying the old man almost to death. As for Burns, he never was anything better than a third-rater."

PHILADELPHIA, PA., April 1.—While Fitzgerald, fresh from a successful trip to the Pacific coast, is in the city, in a most exciting six-round bout at the National Athletic Club last night, Fitzgerald was busy from the start. When the bell tinkled the end of the contest there was no doubt in the minds of the spectators, who crowded every nook and corner in the building, as to who was the winner.

OLYMPIC ATHLETES WILL SAIL FOR GREECE TO-MORROW

Several Stars Added to Team That Will Leave New York Under Command of Matty Halpin.

NEW YORK, April 1.—From near and far the modern Argonauts, under the command of Matty Halpin, the up-to-date Jason, are gathering here, preparatory to sailing on Tuesday on the Borussia for Greece, where they will battle for the gold in Fleece of athletic renown, which hangs on the oak tree in the stadium at Athens. From way down East to sunny California the stalwart sons are answering the call, York every day sees the band swell to greater proportions. 23-most all of the oak-limbed and strong-limbed athletes are here, and to-morrow the quota will be completed.

During the past week the Olympic team was strengthened by four star performers—Ed Parsons, of Yale; Dan Myers, of the Seventy-fourth Regiment of Buffalo; Lawson Robertson, of the Irish-American A. C.; and Paul Pilgrim, of the New York A. C. Parsons' name was considered among the first selections, but it was not until his college faculty would not give the great athlete permission to take the trip. The faculty, however, granted Parsons the necessary leave of absence, and he is now in the city, ready to give the great athlete permission to take the trip.
